

Fall DLC Meeting and Conference Registration & Call for Proposals

Registration is now open for the fall meeting of the Federal Depository Library Council and Federal Depository Library Conference.

Call for Presentations at 2009 Federal Depository Library Conference

GPO invites the Federal documents community to submit proposals for presentations at the annual Federal Depository Library Conference to be held October 19-21, 2009, in Arlington, VA. This annual forum offers numerous opportunities to share your ideas and knowledge, explore new developments, and network with your colleagues.

The conference committee invites presentations from introductory to advanced levels on topics related to Federal information librarianship, including but not limited to:

- * Collection Development
- * Cataloging and Other Methods for Access
- * Depository Library Operations, Training, or Management
- * Regional and Local Depository Events
- * Depository Library Promotion
- * Preservation of Depository Materials

Presentations are 45 minutes or 90 minutes, with a sole presenter or a panel. Audiovisual equipment will be provided.

Accommodations

The Conference and Council meeting will be held at the Doubletree Hotel, located at 300 Army Navy Dr., Arlington, VA 22202. A limited number of rooms will be available on a first-come, first-served basis at the Government rate prevailing at the time of the meeting. The Government rate may increase in the new fiscal year effective October 1, 2009. The current rate is $233 (plus 10.25% tax) per night single and $253 (plus 10.25% tax) per night double.

The Doubletree is not currently accepting reservations for our event. Once registration is opened, instructions will be posted on the FDLP Desktop and sent via FDLP-L.
